Tenleytown Business Brief - January 2017

Winter Weather Preparedness

Snow season has arrived in the District, with the first measurable snow of the winter this past Saturday. While the snow departed almost as quickly as it fell, it was a good reminder that our business district needs to be prepared for winter weather.

Read on for information about DC regulations on snow removal, as well as tips for preparing your business.

New Food Service Packaging Restrictions for 2017

The new year brought new regulations for District businesses that sell or serve food. As of January 1, all single-use food service products must be recyclable or compostable.

After an initial transition period, businesses that violate packaging restrictions may be subject to fines.

Welcome to the Neighborhood!

Tenleytown welcomed two new businesses to Wisconsin Avenue at the end of December. Dunkin' Donuts and The Tile Shop both opened at 4530 Wisconsin Avenue in the Tenley Point building. They join veteran Tenleytown establishment Middle C Music, which will be celebrating 15 years in the neighborhood this year.
